

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ISIDRO MENDEZ-LOPEZ,

Defendant.

No. CR 17-4078-MWB

ORDER REGARDING
MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT
AND RECOMMENDATION
CONCERNING DEFENDANT'S
GUILTY PLEA

I. BACKGROUND

On December 20, 2017, an Indictment was returned against defendant Isidro Mendez-Lopez charging him with one count of illegal reentry in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a). On January 18, 2018, defendant Mendez-Lopez appeared before United States Magistrate Judge Kelly K.E. Mahoney and entered a plea of guilty to the sole count of the Indictment. After the hearing, Judge Mahoney filed a Report and Recommendation that defendant's guilty plea be accepted. No party filed objections to the Report And Recommendation by the deadline of February 1, 2018. Consequently, I now undertake the necessary review of Judge Mahoney's recommendation to accept defendant's guilty plea in this case.

II. APPLICABLE STANDARDS

A district judge must review a magistrate judge's Report And Recommendation in a criminal case under the following standards:

Within fourteen days after being served with a copy, any party may serve and file written objections to such proposed findings and recommendations as provided by rules of court. A judge of the court shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made. A judge of the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge. The judge may also receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the magistrate judge with instructions.

28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); see also FED. R. CRIM. P. 59(b). Thus, when a party objects to any portion of a Report and Recommendation, the district judge must undertake a de novo review of that portion.

On the other hand, any portion of a Report and Recommendation to which no objections have been made must be reviewed under at least a “clearly erroneous” standard. See, e.g., Grinder v. Gammon, 73 F.3d 793, 795 (8th Cir. 1996) (noting that when no objections are filed “[the district court judge] would only have to review the findings of the magistrate judge for clear error”). As the Supreme Court has explained, “[a] finding is ‘clearly erroneous’ when although there is evidence to support it, the reviewing court on the entire evidence is left with the definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed.” Anderson v. City of Bessemer City, 470 U.S. 564, 573-74 (1985) (quoting United States v. U.S. Gypsum Co., 333 U.S. 364, 395 (1948)).

A district judge may elect to review a Report and Recommendation under a more-exacting standard even if no objections are filed:

Any party who desires plenary consideration by the Article III judge of any issue need only ask. Moreover, while the statute does not require the judge to review an issue de novo if no objections are filed, it does not preclude further review by the district judge, sua sponte or at the request of a party, under a de novo or any other standard.

Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985).

III. DISCUSSION

Because the parties have filed no objections to the Report And Recommendation, I have reviewed the Report And Recommendation for clear error. Based on that review, I am not “left with the definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed.” Anderson, 470 U.S. at 573-74. As such, I hereby accept the Report And Recommendation without modification and accept defendant’s plea of guilty in this case as to the sole count of the Indictment.<sup>1</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 2nd day of February, 2018.

<sup>1</sup>United States v. Cortez-Hernandez, 673 Fed. App’x 587, 590-91 (8th Cir. 2016) (per curiam), suggests that a defendant may have the right to de novo review of a magistrate judge’s recommendation to accept a plea of guilty even if no objection is filed. But see 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CRIM. P. 59(b). I will undertake a de novo review of the Report and Recommendation if a written request for such review is filed within seven days after this order is filed.
